ST/AI/176/Rev.3/Amend.1
14 April 1992

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

To: Members of the staff

From: The Controller

Subject: TRANSPORTATION OF PRIVATELY OWNED AUTOMOBILES*

1. The purpose of the present amendment is to implement, with retroactive effect from 1 September 1991, changes in the maximum amount of reimbursement of costs of transporting privately owned automobiles and in the list of countries and Territories where the organization provides the reimbursement. It shall apply to cases of initial appointment or change of duty station that take place on or after 1 September 1991.

2. Paragraph 2 (d) of administrative instruction ST/AI/176/Rev.3 is replaced by the following text:

"(d) Reimbursement shall not exceed 75 per cent of the total costs (including freight, insurance and handling charges), subject to a maximum of US$ 1,875. In the case of a new automobile purchased at a duty station in countries or Territories listed in the annex, the demonstrable shipping costs charged by the dealer may likewise be reimbursed, provided that those costs are reasonable in all the circumstances (including place of shipment in relation to nearest source of supply)."

3. The annex to the present amendment supersedes the annex to administrative instruction ST/AI/176/Rev.3 and Add.1 to 3.

4. Administrative instruction ST/AI/176/Rev.3 should be consulted for all other conditions under which privately owned automobiles may be transported at United Nations expense.
